Company: Agoda

Location: Bangkok

Category: other-general

The Opportunity:

Seeking able, confident, curious and self-motivated lawyer to join the growing Agoda Legal team who will work closely with other stakeholders in the Booking Holdings group, including the parent company and/or sister brands. As a Competition and Disputes Counsel, you are responsible for all competition and disputes law issues (litigation, compliance, class actions, investigations by agencies, advising the business) that affect Agoda globally. You know how to prioritize and see clearly what is of strategic importance for the organization that have a short to long-term context.

Core Skills and Requirements:

5+ years PQE competition/regulatory lawyer with significant experience of dealing with regulators on large investigations/cases/mergers in APAC and ideally also in EU.

Able to provide well-reasoned, yet practical legal advice on a wide-range of matters, with a clear focus on competition and consumer law, and related regulatory issues, including but not limited to authority requests, product initiatives and new legal requirements across multiple jurisdictions.

Ability to handle large scale/complex litigation under supervision as well as simpler cases.

Able to communicate effectively with key business teams, including mid/senior management, global legal team and external counsel.

Self starter who can take forward cases with light touch supervision (from fact finding to presentation to internal or external stakeholders, including regulators, with the help of local counsel where relevant).

Contribute to new policies, procedures, training, and templates with the goal of fostering efficiency and compliance.

What you'll Need to Succeed:

Strong academic credentials, experience working in top-tier law firm preferably with experience working in-house in a competition law/consumer law/disputes role.

A demonstrated can-do, roll up your sleeves, collaborative approach, coupled with a strong work ethic and sound judgment (particularly around senior stakeholder and regulator engagement in APAC and EU).

Experience with travel industry/technology/fintech a plus.

Ability to work independently from instruction through to execution.

Excellent communication and legal drafting skills (verbal and written) in English; good project management and organization skills; additional languages are a plus.

Location:

A relocation to Bangkok is highly preferred, however, we are open to successful candidate being located in Singapore/Hong Kong.
