We support peace and prosperity by building connections, understanding and trust between people in the UK and countries worldwide.

We work directly with individuals to help them gain the skills, confidence and connections to transform their lives and shape a better world in partnership with the UK. We support them to build networks and explore creative ideas, to learn English, to get a high-quality education and to gain internationally recognised qualifications.

Working with people in over 200 countries and territories, we are on the ground in more than 100 countries. In 2021–22 we reached 650 million people.

What's it like to work at the British Council as a Teacher?

Role Purpose

To promote and ensure quality teaching and effective learning of English

To support the wider aims of the British Council and its cultural relations mission

Accountabilities

Plan, prepare, and deliver high-quality English language teaching that meets the needs of different customer groups, taking into account individual learning styles.

Monitor progress and regularly provide feedback to help manage students' performance throughout the course, while actively promoting learner autonomy.

Contribute to the development, evaluation, and improvement of English language courses, materials, and related services, to meet students' needs by actively working as a member of the teaching team.

Complete teaching-related administrative tasks to specified standards.

Actively engage in professional development and performance management to ensure quality and high standards in teaching and learning and maintain the British Council's position at the forefront of best ELT practice.

Support local marketing and promotional strategy and assist the Teaching Centre and/or Partner Schools teams in delivering excellent customer service.

Ensure safeguarding, and that guidelines are applied and upheld in line with standards and policy for the following areas: Child protection; equality, diversity, and inclusion; and health and safety.

Contribute to the development of lasting, mutually beneficial relationships by enhancing students' understanding of contemporary Britain.

Qualifications
